

MUN Dress Code

BEIMUN | International School of Beijing

Basic Expectations

- The BEIMUN dress code is formal
- All participants are expected to dress professionally with respect to a diversity of cultures and identities.
- Improperly dressed participants may be sent back to their home or hotel to be changed into proper attire at their own expense

Suits

- Delegates must be dressed in the following:
 - Blazer
 - Dress shirt or blouse
 - Dress pants
 - Belt (optional)
- Delegates wearing a dress shirt must wear a blazer while speaking at the podium
- We recommend male-identifying delegates to wear ties, but all other delegates have the option to wear ties as well
- Clothing should not reveal midriffs or undergarments

Skirts and Dresses

- Delegates have the option to wear skirts and dresses
- They must be business professional and formal attire
- Skirts and dresses must be an appropriate length and not show midriffs or undergarments

Footwear

- Delegates must wear business professional, close-toed shoes
- For example, leather shoes, flats, or short heels
- Sneakers and sandals are not acceptable
- Comfortable footwear is highly recommended – keep in mind that the ISB campus is large and has many stairs

Avoid

- Delegates are not allowed to dress in the traditional clothing or military attire of their delegation
- Clothing or pins that show flags or other country symbols
- Casual attire (e.g., t-shirts and jeans)
- Brightly saturated colors and loud patterns

Questions & Concerns
